

Australian Gold Rush

Newspaper Article

Due date: 17th October 2014

Task

It's 1851 and you have travelled long and far to arrive at the Australian Gold Rush in Ballarat. You are a reporter for the Olden Day Chronicle and it is your job to write a newspaper report about the first week of the gold rush.

The newspaper report needs to inform readers what has happened in Ballarat. Components of your newspaper article that must be included are:

- Headline
- Byline
- Image and Caption
- Suitable and relevant information
- Sequence information from most to least important
- Indirect/direct speech from at least 3 different people
- Use of past tense
- Correct language

A plan along with the final newspaper report will need to be submitted to the editor in chief.